

Rachel T. Schromen '10

Schromen graduated from WSU with a BA in Law & Society and received her Juris Doctorate from William Mitchell College of Law in 2013. While at WSU, she was actively engaged in Student Senate, WILL (Women's Initiative in Leadership and Learning), Winona State Legal Society, GLBTA (Gay Lesbian Bisexual Transgender Allies) Partnership, PAVE (Promoting Awareness and Victim Empowerment) and FORGE (Fighting for Our Rights and Gender Equality). Schromen is owner and managing attorney of Schromen Law, LLC, which focuses on estate planning and elder law. She is also co-founder and Executive Director of Domestic Abuse Legal Advocacy Center, PSC, which provides pro bono legal services to women and children staying in shelters in Ramsey, Hennepin and Hubbard County. In 2016, Schromen was named "Solo Practitioner of the Month" by Attorney at Law magazine and earned the designation of "North Star Lawyer" in recognition of the number of pro bono hours she provided to individuals in need. She was also voted Favorite Woman Estate Planning Attorney, honorable mention, by readers of Women's Press magazine in May 2017. In her free time, Schromen volunteers with Wills for Heroes and Cancer Legal Line, providing free estate planning to veterans, first responders and terminal cancer patients. She is also an ambassador for Guild, Inc., an organization that provides integrated treatment and services to individuals with mental illness. Schromen resides in historic Ramsey Hill, in St. Paul, Minn., with her husband, Curt Hennemann, and their dog Mabel. She enjoys exploring Minnesota and staying at historic Bed and Breakfasts – especially Winona's Alexander Mansion.
