The entry fee is $100 per player and includes 18 holes of golf with cart, Prime Rib Buffet Dinner and a Harry Vardon Golf Shirt.

Participants can form their own teams, be paired with other participants or buy a WSU golfer for $125.

Prizes will be awarded.

Non-participants can enter the Grand Prize Drawings with every $10 donation.

For more information or a registration form, call Bob Newberry at 507-457-5621 or e-mail: BNewberry@winona.edu.

WSU Recycling Success Doubles
WSU participated in the national Recyclemania competition, recycling almost 120,500 pounds over an eight-week period.
WSU doubled last year's total of 59,000 pounds.

Lourdes Hall won a two-week Residence Hall recycling competition by recycling six pounds per person.

The 2011 Recyclemania competition will kick-off next January. WSU aims to enter the competitive division, focusing on waste minimization.

RecycleMania is a nationwide competition and benchmarking tool for university recycling programs to promote waste reduction throughout their campus communities. With the competition’s reports and rankings, participating schools watch how their results fluctuate against other schools.
