Philip John Bostrack

Sept. 11, 1950 — April 2, 2015

Philip John Bostrack, 64, of Winona died Thursday, April 2, 2015, at his home.

He was born Sept. 11, 1950, in Preston, to Millerd and Anna (Thompson) Bostrack. He grew up in Whalan and graduated from Lanesboro High School in 1969. He attended Winona State University before joining the U.S. Army and served from 1970-1972.

He married Lorrie Lammer in Winona, and had two children, Rachel and Adam.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree in business and marketing from Winona State University and had a long career in the cable television industry. He worked over 25 years at Winona State University as an instructional communication technician and retired in 2013.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, traveling and cheering on the Minnesota Wild.

He is survived by his children, Rachel (Joe) Alrick of Chaska, Minn., and Adam (Carolyn) Bostrack of La Crescent; five grandchildren, Bronte, Dylan, Marli, Elliot and Rio; six siblings, Marilyn Simpson of Eden Valley, Minn., Luther Bostrack of Reno, Nev., Geri Dotson of Palm Desert, Calif., Marjule (Armond) Boehnke of Burnsville, Minn., Carolyn LeBrun of St Paul, and Paul (Kathy) Bostrack of Lanesboro; and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

A celebration of life service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, April 11, at the First Baptist Church in Preston. A military burial will occur at a later date.