Warren Charles Galbus, 77, of Winona died Friday, April 3, 2015, at Saint Anne Extended Healthcare, Winona.

Warren was born April 11, 1937, in the Village of Mineola, Long Island, N.Y., to William and Anna (Wiencho) Galbus. On Aug. 3, 1963, he married Carol Ann Smith in Medford, Minn. They had four children, Julia, Andrew, Gregory and Jeffrey. Warren was a devout Catholic and treasured praying the rosary. He enjoyed learning about and growing spruce and American chestnut trees. He loved antique scavenging and especially collecting old jazz phonograph records. He graduated from Mineola High School and attended C.W. Post College (Long Island University), earning a BS degree, and an M.A. in industrial relations from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and an M.S. in educational administration from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis. He was an economics teacher at Mounds View High School before moving to Winona. He was an associate professor at St. Mary’s University, Winona, for 35 years and chair of the business administration department for 12 years, retiring in 2002. In addition, he was the Head Start director with SEMCAC, Rushford, Minn., for several years. He was a member of the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, Winona, where he served as a Eucharistic Minister, and was on the parish council and the Cathedral School Board. He also served on the AgStar Board (formerly Agribank) from 1990-2001. Warren served in the U.S. Army from 1961-63.

Warren is survived by his wife, Carol, Winona; children, Julia (Kyle) Kiesel, Evansville, Ind., Andrew (Holly) Galbus, Rochester, Minn., Gregory (Julie) Galbus, Savage, Minn., and Jeffrey (Ann) Galbus, St. Paul; six grandchildren, Laura, Jessica, Grace Galbus, Ben, Matt, Joe Kiesel; his twin sister, Phyllis (Earl) Willis, Cool, Calif.; and other relatives. Two brothers, Kenneth and William, are deceased.

Mass of Christian Burial will be 1 p.m., Thursday, April 9, 2015, at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, Winona, with the Rev. Msgr. Richard Colletti officiating. Placement in the crypt will be at St. Mary’s Cemetery, Winona. Visitation will be from 5 to 7 p.m., Wednesday, April 8, at Fawcett Junker Funeral Home, Winona.

Memorials may be addressed to St. Mary’s University of Minnesota for the international students program, Saint Anne Extended Healthcare Dementia Unit, Mayo Clinic Dementia Research, Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, or a charity of the donor’s choice.
