
He was born July 1, 1939, in Winona to Harry Sr. and Adeline (Lafka) Verdick. On Oct. 6, 1973, Harry was united in marriage with Patricia D. Lietha at Central Lutheran Church in Winona.

Harry was a member of St. Martin's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Winona.

For many years, Harry was employed at the Harold Laak dairy farm in Stockton and also worked for 20 years at Gorman Foundry. He enjoyed spending time watching football and baseball and was an avid fan of both sports.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia Verdick of Winona; daughter, Sara Mullen of Ixonia, Wis.; son, Brian Verdick of Winona; grandson, Eric Mullen of Ixonia; siblings, Robert (Donna) Verdick of Winona, Shirley (Jerry) Carter of Henriette, Minn., Judy (Dale) Disher of La Crosse, Wis., August (Pat) Verdick of Winona and John (Sherry) Verdick of Wabasha, Minn.; and Charlotte (Philip) Bronk of Winona; stepsisters, Marian Killian Schmidt and Arlene (Roger) Killian Sebo, both of Winona.

Harry was preceded in death by his parents.

A funeral service will be at 1 p.m. Thursday, March 18, at St. Martin's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Richard A. Moore will officiate.

Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 5 until 8 p.m. today, March 17, at Watkowski-Mulyck Funeral Home, where Pastor Moore will lead a devotion at 7:30 p.m. Visitation will also be at St. Martin's Evangelical Lutheran Church from noon until the time of the service Thursday.
