

Teacher Education Program Expense Table

*Itemized Expenses	Total Expenses
MTLE Basic Skills: Prior to Admission to the Teacher Education Unit, if you have not taken the ACT Plus Writing and received a composite score equal to or greater than 22 and a combined English/Writing score equal to or greater than 21 OR if you have not taken the SAT and received a score equal to or greater than 510 on the Reading & Writing and a score equal to or greater than 520 on the Mathematics, then you must complete the MTLE Basic Skills tests. Reading - $25 Writing - $25 Math - $25 There is also an additional Registration Fee of $50 that is paid once per test program year. The program year runs 9/1-8/31. This remains the same no matter how many tests are taken.	$0 - $125
Background Checks (3 Total)	$100
Liability Insurance ($32 each year)	$128
Task Stream: $126/6 years, required for the Teacher Performance Assessment (TPA)	$126
MTLE Pedagogy and Content Area: Prior to applying for licensure in MN, you must pass this series of tests. Pedagogy $35 per subtest (2 subtests) Content Area $35 per subtest (2-3 subtests) There is also an additional Registration Fee of $50 that is paid once per test program year. The program year runs 9/1-8/31. This remains the same no matter how many tests are taken. If you do not pass a test the first time, then you do have to pay again when you retake the test.	$225
Licensure: The state of MN charges $90.65 to process the paperwork for teacher licensure candidates.	$90.65
edTPA	$270
Grand Total	$939.65 - $1064.65

*This table is meant to give you an idea of the additional expenses (beyond tuition and books) involved in teacher education programs and licensure. This is not meant to be exhaustive, and these figures could change at any time without notice. Also, keep in mind that costs such as test preparation materials are not included. This information is provided to you so that you can budget accordingly.

Updated: 2.16.2015