

ACCEPTABLE DOCUMENTATION

It is the student's responsibility to provide recent, professional documentation of his or her disability.

The documentation should include the following:

- 1) Statement of the disability on the letterhead of a qualified professional
- 2) Statement of how the disability functionally limits him/her in the academic environment
- 3) Recommendations for specific accommodations and rationale for those recommendations

An IEP is acceptable if it includes full psycho-educational testing and results.
