- Orientation Week
 - Playfair is a go with housing
 - Playfair is a team building coordinator that provides a bunch of cool activities this will be the Wednesday of orientation week and they have asked us to co-sponsor that event with us we aren't going to motion until housing has the contract done. UPAC would provide some funding and be supplemental staff if needed
 - Play fair got a thumbs up so we will not be booking an orientation week event at NACA but the motion will still wait until next week
- April Grocery Bingo
 - Wednesday, April 18th, Monday 23rd in SLC Atrium
 - Tuesday, April 24th in SAC
 - East Hall is booked forever and ever, sorry
 - SLC could be a little less chaotic if we try it again, maybe try to not do another Wednesday event
 - SAC could be another great option, if we did grocery bingo here we would not be set up traditionally with tables and could fit roughly 120 people

- Putting a twist on grocery bingo - snack packs? Instead of each winner getting an individual item we would get a bunch of individually packaged items with a couple different snacks in it, can be tailored to allergies and gluten free and possibly a finals themed snack pack. Could possibly spend more money on these snack packs. Just something we should think about trying! Would likely limit to winning once and then you could still win the grand prize. Could do all the same
- People are a go with trying out by going half and half with snack packs and regular bingo
- Motion
- Emily makes a motion to host April grocery bingo on Monday April 23rd at 7pm in the SLC Atrium spending no more than $500 seconded by Rene Motion Passes
