

Matthew Lungerhausen, Ph. D.

Department of History
Winona State University
P.O. Box 5838
Winona, MN 55987
Email: mlungerhausen@winona.edu

415 West Wabasha St
Winona MN 55987
Mobile: 507-313-1505
Office phone: 507-457-5409

Current Position:

Associate Professor, History Department, Winona State University, Winona MN, since July 2010

Education:

Ph. D. Modern European History, University of Minnesota, September 2004

M. A. European History, Binghamton University SUNY, May 1998

B. A. History, University of California, Santa Cruz, June 1991

Current Research:

A book manuscript in preparation: *Capturing the National Self-Image:
Photography in Hungary, 1867-1918.*

Textbook proposal in preparation: The Habsburg Monarchy and its Legacies, 1740-1918 and beyond

Experience:

Assistant Professor, History Department, Winona State University, Winona MN,
August 2006 to July 2010

Lecturer, History Department, Winona State University, Winona MN, August
2004-August 2006

Graduate Instructor, History Department, University of Minnesota, 2002-2004

Teaching Assistant, History Department, University of Minnesota, Fall 2001

Graduate Instructor, Intersession, History Department, University of Minnesota,
Summer 2000 & 2001

Research Assistant for Professor David Good, History Department, University of Minnesota, 1999 - 2000

Conference Coordinator, Center for Austrian Studies, University of Minnesota, 1998-1999

Teaching Assistant, Department of History, Binghamton University, 1996 to 1998

Grants:

Winona State University Professional Improvement Fund Grant, Summer 2010

Winona State University Professional Improvement Fund Grant, Summer 2008

Graduate/Faculty Research Partnership, University of Minnesota, Summer 2003

Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship, University of Minnesota, 2002-2003

Zoltai Graduate Fellowship, University of Minnesota, 2002-2003